A six-day family journey through the Kashmir Valley, paced for an easy June holiday.

Begin with a shikara ride on Dal Lake and a night aboard a hand-carved houseboat, then ride the Gulmarg Gondola up to the meadows of Kongdoori. Cross the saffron fields of Pampore on the way to Pahalgam, where the Lidder river leads into the Aru, Betaab and Chandanwari valleys. Close in Srinagar with the Mughal gardens, the old city and a last cup of kahwa by the lake. A private car and driver throughout, comfortable family rooms, and plenty of room for slow mornings.

The houseboat night was magical and our driver felt like family by Day 2. Perfectly paced for our kids.

Gondola tickets were sorted in advance, so we skipped the queue. Aru and Betaab were the highlight.

Pahalgam riverside hotel was lovely. One long drive day, but the saffron stop broke it up well.
